

Careers in Law Enforcement Community Orientation

Have you ever considered being a police officer or working in the field of law enforcement, but didn't know how to get started? The Jerome Police Department is pleased to present a community orientation on law enforcement careers. This event will have information on the requirements to become a police officer, the application process, training requirements, pay, and benefits. A representative from the College of Southern Idaho will also be on hand with information on the CSI Law Enforcement Training Program. Anyone interested in a law enforcement career is invited to attend.

When: Wednesday, January 30, 2019 at 6:00 P.M.

Where: Jerome Public Library located at 100 1st Ave. E. in Jerome, Idaho.
